8:00 P. M. The Associational Training Union "M" Night will be held in our church. A goal of 500 in attendance has been set for this service. There will be an "International Tea Party" following the services. Three areas will be featured, Africa, Latin America, and the Orient. Three assembly rooms of the church will be decorated with displays representing these areas. The young ladies and ladies of the church will serve as hostesses to the areas. We would be honored to have visitors as our guests.

This Friday, Dec. 4, our church will be open from 6:00 A. M. to 7:00 P. M. for World Day of Prayer for Foreign Missions. The response to the Week of Prayer has been wonderful thus far, and we are well on the way to exceeding the goal of $900 as a special offering to be used for this purpose.

The Training Union Council will meet at 7:15 on Wednesday evening under the direction of Mr. Franklin Vaughan, our Training Union Director.

"The Senior Citizens" Christmas party will be held Saturday, Dec. 12, at 2:30 to 4:00 P. M. in our church. We trust that the senior citizens will be able to attend the party in their honor. There will be a program planned especially for them. The W. M. S. of our church is sponsoring the party. Mrs. H. B. Marshall is president of our society.

"The Nativity" will be produced by our choirs on Dec 20, at 7:30 P. M.

Saturday night, Dec. 6, the Brotherhood will meet.

MEMORIAL ACTIVITIES

The Chapel Choir of the Memorial Methodist Church, Mrs. Murrell Ferguson, Organist and Director, will be assisted by other Young People of the church in presenting the Annual Christmas Service Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The service will feature "Women Prepare the Way," depicting the Women of the Old Testament who Prophesied and Prepared the Way for the Coming of the Messiah. The program will include Eve, whose seed shall crush Satan's Head; Mrs. Noah, who waited with the New Creation under God's Rainbow of Promise; Sarah, first of the Hebrew Matriarchs; Rebecca, mother of the Father of the Israelites; Rachel who gave birth to Joseph, after whom likely the father of Jesus was named; Jochebed, protective foster mother of Moses; Miriam, who inspired the Wanderers of Wilderness Journey with her poems of hope; Deborah, first woman military strategist; Ruth the Moabitess, who mingled foreign blood in the Messiah' lineage; Esther, the Jewish refugee girl who became a Queen and saved her people in a time of persecution; Anna, who kept alive the faith for the redemption of Israel by remaining unceasingly in the Holy Temple; Elizabeth, cousin of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, who comforted the Virgin in her time of Great Expectation; and Mary, the Jewish maiden of Nazareth, who gave birth by a miraculous conception to Jesus.

The Chapel Choir will furnish appropriate Christmas music for the background of this procession of Prophetesses to whom God revealed the Coming into the world of His Only Begotten Son.

Members and friends of Memorial are urged to be present for this anticipated inspirational service presented by the Young People.

Easy Colorful Holiday Buffet

Expecting company over the holidays? Family spending Christmas with you? Whatever the occasion, what could be gayer than a beautiful frosted ham as the star of your buffet? The season is always highlighted with delectable goodies to tease the appetite and add to the cheer, but few are as easy to make and as delicious to eat! All you need is a canned ham, frosted with cream cheese blended with horseradish. You can garnish it with pimiento trees, bells or wreaths — whatever your imagination suggests!

Buffet Frosted Ham

2 8-oz. pkgs. cream cheese — 5 to 7 pound canned ham,
Milk — Christmas tree garnish
¼ cup cream style horseradish

Combine the cream cheese and a small amount of milk, blending until smooth. Add the horseradish and mix well.

Remove the gelatin from the ham. Frost sides and top with the cream cheese mixture. Garnish and refrigerate for several hours. Christmas tree garnish: Cut canned pimientos to form trees.

WEEK OF PRAYER

The Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions is being observed this week by the W. M. S. of Liberty Baptist Church. Inspiring programs were presented Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, showing the needs of foreign missions and how these needs may be met by prayer and giving to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering here at home.

Thursday night's program will be presented by Mrs. Edwin Cawthorne. The theme for the day is "O God, We Pray for Presses at Work for God." Those participating in the program will be: Mrs. Franklin Vaughan, Mrs. Robert Hubbard, Mrs. W. E. Hancock, Mrs. Lloyd Hudson and Mrs. J. V. Torrence.

Mrs. R. L. Hamgardner will be the leader of Friday night's program, using as her theme, "O, God, We Pray for All Mankind" The needs of Baptist Women's Organizations around the world will be presented. There will also be a summary, by the leaders for each day, giving the needs of the world.

An amount of $437.00 has been received toward the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering goal of $800.00.

World Day of Prayer will be observed in the church from 6:00 A. M. until 7:00 P. M. on Friday, Dec. 4. All members are urged to come to the church for prayer and meditation sometime during the day.

Mt. Comfort Methodist Church
Appomattox Charge

Worship programs in keeping with the Christmas season will begin on Sunday evening at 7:00, with the showing of the filmstrip, "Saga of the Bible" during the M. Y. F. program. With continued emphasis on Daily Bible Reading, "The Everlasting Light" will be the theme of the opening worship for the Church School on Sunday morning, December 13th.

A Christmas worship service, "Christmas Around the World", directed by Mrs. J. G. Martin, will be presented on Dec. 11th at 8:00. Taking part on the program will be members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Men's Club Choir and the Children's Choir.

The pastor will bring the Christmas message on Sunday morning, Dec. 20, at 10:00. On Dec. 27, at 10:15, the Children's Division of the Church School, assisted by members of the Youth Department will present a program, "Keeping Christmas— Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow." In developing the theme, the 175th Anniversary of American Methodism will be observed.

A warm welcome is extended to all to to come and worship at Mt. Comfort Methodist Church.
